

Basic At Home Lecture Capture

Universities and professors are adapting to at home teaching scenarios. A high quality, easy-to-use video system is essential for professors to deliver learning experiences.

For professors at home, Panopto's integrated solutions are designed to be easy to set up and use minimal space, allowing the instructor to focus on teaching rather than technology.

Your Complete At Home Video Solution

Our technology and integration partners have developed hardware and software that integrates with Panopto. With Panopto as your video management system, all you'll need in this at home solution is an easy to use, low cost video camera.

The Logitech Brio webcam delivers 4K UHD, 5X digital zoom, high frame rates and multiple resolutions. Logitech's RightLight™ 3 with HDR helps presenters look their best in any illumination. Advanced Logitech optics deliver razor-sharp video resolution with auto focus and multiple FOV options – 65°, 78°, and 90°.
